THE INTERNATIONAL FEDERATION OF INDIGENOUS ZEBU CATTLE OF INDIA

ABOUT IFIZCI

The International Federation of Indigenous Zebu Cattle of India (IFIZCI) stands as a dedicated Indian organization, placing its primary focus on the enhancement of Zebu Cattle breeds and fostering international collaboration. The objective is to preserve the best germplasm and genetics of all Indian Zebu breeds. Through the incorporation of innovative technologies, comprehensive training programs, and ongoing research on nutrition and feeding practices, IFIZCI is committed to elevating the well-being of Indigenous Zebu Cattle. We staunchly advocate policies that support the conservation of these invaluable breeds, while simultaneously facilitating income-generation opportunities for cattle breeders. Our commitment extends to the promotion of sustainable agriculture and fodder production techniques as well as the preservation of traditional cattle rearing practices.
